

Fortress mentality

The fortress mentality is here. We're in it. Until these stressed kids are no longer being driven crazy by the insanity on media, in Hollywood promiscuity and addictive confusions beyond all endurance and getting to express it with assault rifles, and killing themselves in oversensitized reaction to offenses, overheated levels of stress and confusion in the name of free speech, amusements, racial rights, corrupted democracy and diluted religion, and the result all blamed on the weapons the kids pick up, they have to be locked and bolted into securely designed places of serene learning and deprived of all media except for family contact and normal daily discourse. We're there. No more honor system until fear and stress exacerbated by corporate-owned media cease to be a factor in the vitriolic national discourse.

HELP WANTED:

Managers for the largest water management district

Nothing "failing" about a dike that handled Irma's maximum pressure so well. But continuing using the lake like a giant pressure valve reservoir will only kill its ecosystem from so much up and down. ONLY finishing whole 68-component system spares the estuaries, if and when filthy Martin county learns the meaning of sanitation. Put all resources into SFWMD components of reservoirs, groundwater regulation, deep well injection, and remove the U.S.Interior department's stop-pages of releasing southward flow in appropriate volumes.

Culled fruits and vegetables from the fields are nutritious if not shiney color-perfect for optimal sales appeal. Wasting them is a crime

Mr. SCHIFF
Right, like the American people deserve to be afflicted by CNN, here a congressman wants criminal accusations tried in the media, is delaying the judicial process with political protest against the appearance of probable cause.
Sometimes congress and the media interfere, if they can, in the juducial process. Other times, the judiciary interferes where it has no business in Presidential powers regarding immigration or in overwriting legislation with its misinterpreted version. Finally, a criminal charge against a politician is voided while campaigning for no other reason than at the moment in mid-campaign it appears the candidate might pull out a win, meaning the arresting officer has told a lie that now has to be true. No more corrupt era in American history since Reconstruction.You have to go back to 1874, Reconstruction,

Self ruin

We're overrun with masses expropriating territory, diluting the values underlying the thing they seek.
To restrain immigration, the phrase "Disposable income" needs to be rethought, as largely senseless, media-driven misspending. Advertising is driving third world cultures mad with envy.
The false meaning of disposable income, and false concepts behind political correctness drive this crisis.
They sense they can take advantage of an opening, the political correctness of our naive, indoctrinated youth, believing it's turning the country into a giveaway machine, and subordinating the interests of the individual to those of the masses, with no imperative values to speak truthfully, or to become self-reliant, or to work in peace toward making your dreams come true.
Advertising never acknowledged the presence of those values as having had origins in Protestant Christianity. It just sizzled the allure. If any other kind of religious foundation could have generated the values our American National culture has used to keep capitalism and democracy from destroying each other, we would've seen it by now.

TELEVISED MESSAGE IN-DOCTRINATION

From any political science perspective, these scripts of forthcoming TV shows undermine citizenship premeditatedly. From all other viewpoints they are mentally unhealthy and needless sources of stress as viewers ingest the bile of a perverted, vengeful and bitter entertainment colony, half-gay, half-addicts, all-promiscuous living pretense lives, enslaved by the limelight, indifferent to the habits of growing, learning working people. And the rest of us pay far, far too much attention to them, their ways and their nose jobs.

CANNOT rely on corrupt federal agencies. Whenever politicians corrupt an agency, they distract and disrupt its protective work. Same when feverish congressmen abandon their crucial oversight responsibilities to obsess over getting their faces in the 11 o'clock news. SAME thing during Clinton impeachment years which were followed not much later by Bin Laden getting the jump on us at 9/11. The real cost of corruption is the hapless FBI function in gun control slipping through their fingers.

GINSBURG RECEDING
Evidence of a SCOTUS paranoia interfering with cognitive clarity. Wrong old campaigner in the job which requires greater understanding of customary non-legal routes to sexual satisfaction and motherhood, outside the contentious arenas of government-issue municipal democracy, probably a mistaken appointment from the beginning, an affirmative action credentialed token sustained by hopes that she would measure up to Sandra Day O'Conner, see the big picture and learn on the job. But too NYC-arrogant, and ruthlessly competitive, to be capable of growth and gender justice. Probably responsible for gender vindictiveness.

Obama's artworld is to art as Obama's justice department was to justice. Don't look ANYTHING like the real thing .

The saddest collusion of all involves union leaders who've convinced companies to accept corporate suicide as an option

Did FBI Director Wray just say he's for sale? His "Talk is cheap" is J. Edgar vintage, NOT NEARLY CONTRITE ENOUGH

Congress needs to take a couple of months off and attend a course on the Constitution. Those members of Congress who are unable to do their jobs should be fired by We The People. The two party system has manipulated the law, they have made up the rules they don't follow, but prevent others from playing. They have created a permanent political class that rules over the people, they play with others lives to enrich themselves without any accountability. Time for that to change.

RB: Government by lawyers is narrowly fratricidal. Government by experience informally encoded in the American National culture promotes peaceful coexistence, honest speech and individual self-reliance, our goals whether or not fee-hunting lawyers know it.

Job hunters:

The labor pool you're in makes a difference if it's a demographic of useless transients or losers. Employers have to whip their crew into some kind of shape, despite the excuses, laziness, trouble makers, bad attitudes or ill health, bad schooling. He can get tough, or else. Can be the same for public and private sector in the same place.
Kids expect to find an even playing field out there.
It's a very fine and memorable thing to find your boss trying to be fair. It's rare because capitalism has no rules, and generates vast wasteful energies that reduce employees to being a number, at the same time generating great ideas.
But handle yourself right, show the boss what HE wants to see, and learn what you can for as long as you want. Oh, and don't get tied down with a woman.

No.1: Grow from being with the people there; if nobody's worth being with, regardless what the job is, move on and your experience will accumulate.
No. 2: Keep working in related fields and avoid irrelevant fields, and get formal education in that field whenever possible.
No. 3: It's not what you do, it's who you do it with, but a boss is not a co-worker, he has to get results, not experience.
Millenials looking for excuses claim the boss is narcissist, misogynistic, every ready made excuse. Get real!
Piss off living off your parents. They don't keep you for your worth. Employers are different. Equal pay for equal RESULTS.

Patched up the crack in the Liberty Bell

The whole idea of a chain as a newspaper management concept is that resources may be reallocated from a paper with strong revenues to another with weaker. But which one of us, as readers, and as citizens of a community, would be satisfied to have our community paper weakened, its staff and supplies and its ability to present a cohesive image of our community activities to us all diminished, so that another community's paper, belonging to the same chain, perhaps one more favored by a faraway corporate manager, would thrive? This is why Hendry and Glades counties need a Sunday News that they can truly call their own.
